A meeting of the club has been called by the board of governors for Friday at the Berkeley Lyceum. The notification which was sent to members yesterday is as follows:

"To the Members of West Side Tennis Club.

burned two years ago. All the other boathouses are in use except the one which Georgetown used in 1906. This house is almost under the Foughkeepsle bridge, and at present is used by a boatman. It is barely possible that Columbia's old quarters at Red Top, above Krum Elbow, may be available. It may be that for their first visit the Californians will be put up at the Columbia quarters, which the Columbia management bought last fall, but until the stewards have their
